

GD1/23/        BRIGADIER WILLIAM KENNETH MORRISON

The following notes were deposited over a period of three years by Brigadier Morrison, who had studied medicine at Edinburgh university from 1908 to 1913 and was a junior house officer at the Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh from 1913 to 1914. An outline of his later medical career in the Army is contained in GD1/23/3.

- 1        Notes and extracts concerning medical life and events in the RIE taken from “The Student” May-Dec 1889.
- 2        As above, Dec 1889-Mar 1890.
- 3        As above, Oct 1892-Feb 1893.        Contains an outline of Brigadier Morrison’s medical career.
- 4        As above, Oct 1891-Mar 1892.
- 5        As above, 1893-1894.
- 6        As above, 1893-1895.
- 7        As above, 1894-1897.
- 8        As above, 1896-1898.
- 9        As above, 1897-1900.
- 10       As above, 1899-1904.
- 11       Notes on a speech by Sir Joseph Lister taken from ‘The Student’, May 1891
- 12       Notes on the Residency Log, 1911-1912.
- 13       Correspondence between Mrs Patricia Eaves-Walton, RIE Archivist and Brigadier WK Morrison concerning the completion of the above notes. Sep 1968-Sep 1971. (28 items).