LHB29 BOARD OF MANAGEMENT OF EDINBURGH CENTRAL HOSPITALS

Introduction

The National Health Service (Scotland Act, 1947, set up Regional Hospital Boards and, within them, Boards of Management responsible for the administration of groups of hospitals. This system operated until the reorganisation of the National Health Service in 1974.

The Board of Management for Edinburgh Central Hospitals formed part of the South Eastern Regional Hospital Board and consisted of the undernoted hospitals. Reference numbers in brackets refer to pre 1948 records of these hospitals.

Chalmers Hospital (LHB4)

Edinburgh Foot Clinic and School of Chiropody (LHB15)

Edinburgh Orthopaedic Clinic

Princess Margaret Rose Orthopaedic Hospital (LHB30)

Royal Hospital for Sick Children (LHB5)

The Board of Management for Edinburgh Central Hospitals was disbanded on 31st March 1970. At that date Chalmers Hospital transferred to the Board of Management for the Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh and Associated Hospitals (LHB2), the Royal Hospital for Sick Children transferred to the Board of Management for the Edinburgh Northern Hospitals (LHB11), while the Princess Margaret Rose Orthopaedic Hospital, the Foot Clinic and the Orthopaedic clinic transferred to the Edinburgh Royal Victoria and Associated Hospitals Board of Management (LHB10).

From 1974 to 1984 these hospitals formed part of the South Lothian District of Lothian Health Board (see LHB28).

2 Secretary's Files on Chalmers Hospital, 1948-1970

From July 1948 until March 1970 Chalmers Hospital was part of the Edinburgh Central Hospitals Board of Management. On its disbandment in 1970 Chalmers Hospital joined the Royal Infirmary group. These files were transferred to Royal Infirmary's Board of Management at that time.

The Hospital for Diseases of Women in Archibald Place was amalgamated with Chalmers Hospital in February 1951. It was used as an annex for gynaecological, paediatric and ear, nose and throat cases until its closure in March 1968. The building was demolished in that year to make way for Phase I of the new Royal Infirmary.

The secretaries of the Board of Management were John Kinnaird, G G Savage and J Laidlaw.
